Sets a high standard for protection

Drop-tested to military-grade standards, the Protective Standing Cover helps keep your phone safe from damage and drops. Go about your daily routine and worry less about your phone.

Kick back and watch comfortably

This case cradles your phone without blocking the immersive view of the Infinity-O Display, and has two kickstands in the back of your case to hold it up. Take your pick of two comfortable viewing angles: 45 or 60 degrees.

Takes off before it breaks off

This case helps protect your phone, and protects itself, too. The kickstands on the back are detachable, snapping off in case your phone falls to prevent them from breaking completely.
